HOW ARE THE MODULES ASSESSED?

CIPS is an exam-based syllabus with six multi-choice style question exams over 1.5 hours and two essay-style question exams over 3 hours. All exams are taken on computers remotely.

HOW MUCH TIME WILL IT TAKE?

We offer several study options, which are flexible to work around your work and personal commitments. CIPS recommend 25-50 guided learning hours per module, with a similar amount of time spent on private study. Most students find that they spend 5-8 hours studying per week initially but increase this in the weeks leading up to an exam. CIPS offer five exam periods per year November, March, May, July and September. Most of our level 4 students complete one level per year; however, it is possible to extend your study over a longer period.
